- 19 November 2013 at Arch1, Jeff Cloke (live processing) and Lawrence Upton (live voice) performed In the railway truck variation 1; 20 minutes approx. Upton performed his own visual score while Cloke treated the sound and generated his own new graphics. In the railway truck dates from 2003, one of many alphabet-based pieces made at that time. It was accepted for publication; but the publication did not appear. Variation 1, which reworks the original quite extensively, dates from 2013. There is also Variation 1 (extended) which has yet to be realised. Neither variation has yet been published.
